MCA board of directors welcomes new officers/board members

Michigan Community Action (MCA) has appointed both new and familiar faces to its 2015-2017 board of directors.

John Stephenson of Traverse City continues as president. Louis Piszker of Wyandotte is vice president and Jill Sutton of Farwell is secretary treasurer.

New member Arthur Fenrick of Benton Harbor is the Lower Peninsula rural officer. Other new members include Eric Schertzing of Lansing, Caroline Ross of Greenville, Charlotte Smith of Kalamazoo and Kerri Duff of Bessemer. Filling the CAA governing board officer positions are Schertzing and Ross. Smith and Duff now serve as urban officer and Upper Peninsula officer respectively.

Toby Berry of Jackson continues to serve as an at large officer.

Founded in 1975, Michigan Community Action serves its 29 member agencies throughout Michigan by strengthening their capacity to alleviate the causes and circumstances of poverty in all 83 counties.
